4-H CLUB NOTES

East Maplewood Beavers (by Carley Frea)

The Feb. 22 meeting - 7:16 p.m. The Pledge of Allegiance led by Megan L. and Cora B. led the 4-H Pledge. Roll call: Said what we would do to make a difference if we were given $500. Secretary's report read by Naomi W. Treasurer's report read by Emma S. Food drive that we held on Saturday, Feb. 20, was discussed. We had the best ever year at Marchant's and the other two stores did well also. Many of the local food pantry shelves were empty so we made a large impact on many people. A thank you went out to those who put the word of the event out and there was a suggestion to try and get the word to the Advocate earlier so that a publication could be made twice before the event. John M. talked about the shoe drive for Haiti. We collected many pairs of shoes to be donated, and if anyone wanted to still donate Mary M. and John M. are able to take shoes through the March meeting. The QMAS producer panel meeting was canceled due to weather so watch for a mailing on when that will be rescheduled. The bulbs were delivered. Sarah S. delivered to Pine Crest and said they were very appreciative. Thank you notes were received from five different groups and Theresa received several phone calls from people she didn't know thanking us for what we did. We talked about the educational day at Kinnard's on Feb. 27 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. There will be opportunities to stencil boxes, paint snowman boards, cook, or make snowmen out of socks. Theresa talked about Wendy U.'s opportunity to go on a mission trip to Africa this summer. She is fundraising by selling Pampered Chef items. We tabled further discussion until the March meeting. The spring craft day at Rouer's will be on Sat., March 27. They will be making photo boards and the cost will be $4. A motion to pass the new business was made by Megan L. and second by Mattie SM. Marie F. and Carley F. did a demonstration on how to tape an ankle. The Cloverbuds showed us the flowers they made with their hands and paper plates. The meeting was adjourned at 7:58 p.m.

Maplewood Missiles (by Carla Wynveen)

Called the Feb. 8th meeting to order at 6:35 p.m. Jake led the Pledge of Allegiance, Marlene led the 4-H Pledge and Alisha led the Conservation Pledge. We received a thank you card from the Humane Society for our donations. Cross country skiing at Crossroads on Feb. 20 at 10:00 a.m. Everyone is to bring $1.00 to donate. Jake will find out about having our club do a car wash in Forestville during the rummage sales. Spring Fling - Sat., April 10 -- looking for project leaders. Speaking Contest - Friday, March 12 if anyone wants to practice for the club at the next meeting they can. Keep collecting Econo-Foods receipts! Motion to adjourn by Jake; second by Marlene. Meeting adjourned at 7:30 p.m. Next meeting March 8 at 6:30 p.m., Forestville Town Hall.

Lake Viewers (by Allie Rittle)

In February, the LakeViewers met to carry out the project that we worked on in January. We had made lots of Valentine's to deliver to the several nursing homes and extended care places in the Sturgeon Bay area. We split our group into smaller groups to deliver the Valentine's. Each group delivered in their own way. For example, two of the Lake Viewers families brought Valentines to the Extended Care at the Door County Memorial Hospital. They performed two dances, one tap and one jazz, and they read a poem about love. The seniors really seemed to enjoy it—it made them really happy! It was gratifying to see the smiling faces.
