

Abandoned Horses Phone Conference

Tuesday, October 6
6:30 - 8:00 pm

6:25 Dial-in

6:30 Abandoned Horses: Occurance, Challenges, and Issues: Increased grain, hay and gas prices are affecting the ability of horse owners to properly care for their animals. Many are abandoned at boarding facilities, sale barns, riding venues or just released. What are the issues and challenges and how do they impact horses and people?
Dr. Yvonne Bellay, Wisconsin State Humane Officer

7:00 Legal Aspects of Abandoned Horses: What are the legal obligations and recourses for facilities where horses are abandoned? Discussion will include boarding contracts and obtaining legal ownership of abandoned animals. Yvonne Ocrant, Attorney at Law, Hinshaw and Culbertson LLP

7:30 Question and Answer/Discussion

Teleconference Etiquette: Mute your phone when speakers are presenting. The audience can hear comments and location background.

Registration Options: Online or Mail

Mail Registration Form below to:

University of Illinois Extension, Lake County, 100 S. Hwy 45, Grayslake, IL 60030

On-line registration available at: <http://web.extension.uiuc.edu/lake/>

Registrations must be received by October 1st in order to receive a confirmation by e-mail with call-in information and materials.

For more information contact Peg Reedy at the Walworth County UW-Extension Office:
(262) 741-4961 or peg.reedy@ces.uwex.edu.

Registration Form: - $5.00 Per Person

Name: _____ Name: _____

Name: _____ Phone #: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____ *E-Mail: _____

Amount Enclosed: _____

An email address is required to receive call-in information and materials.*