

MetLife Partners Training

September 25, 2007

1. Introductions and Welcome
2. Why we contacted UW-Extension as a BLAST after-school partner - Monica
  - a. Mutual needs that were met through partnering
3. Guided imagery tour of the community - Wendie
  - a. How can after-school be a part of addressing these community issues?
  - b. What strengths that you identified build on our capacity in after-school programs?
4. Introduction to Public Adventures - Wendie
  - a. Definitions of volunteerism, community service, service-learning
  - b. Overview of the seven steps in the Public Adventures curriculum
  - c. "Show and share" results of BLAST service-learning projects from 2006-07; display boards; scrapbook
5. Lunch and conversation
6. What can UW-Extension offer as a partner in after-school programming? Deb
  - a. 4-H project curriculum (show examples)
  - b. Web-based after-school curriculum
  - c. Staff training
  - d. On-going technical assistance
  - e. Some funding support for resources and program supplies (pending approval by 4-H Executive Board)
  - f. Sharing of people resources that we have been awarded (AmeriCorps, VISTA)
7. Conversation on potential future partnerships - Deb/Wendie
8. After-school Agriculture snack activity - Wendie
9. Workshop summary: telephone poem activity from communication curriculum - Deb
10. Adjourn

"This training event is sponsored by the University of Wisconsin Cooperative Extension 4-H Youth Development Program, the MetLife Foundation in partnership with the National 4-H Council, and Jackson County UW-Extension on behalf of the Wisconsin Afterschool Network."