

Fall Forum
Wisconsin State 4-H Adult and Youth Leader Councils
November 4, 2006
Plaza Hotel, Wausau, WI
AGENDA

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 Welcome, Pledges, Opening Activities
- 9:30 State Update – Greg Hutchins
- 9:45 Workshop: Learn More with the 4
Description: Come learn why 4-H is SO great! There are 4 Essential Elements that make 4-H great – belonging, mastery, independence, and generosity. Learn about the 4 Essential Elements through hands on learning activities that you can lead with a 4-H group back home.
Presenters: Deb Ivey, Iowa County 4-H Youth Development Agent/Department Head, René Mehlberg, Winnebago County 4-H Youth Development Educator, and youth leaders.
- 11:15 Ice Breaker – YLC
- 11:30 4-H Opens Doors – What opportunities has 4-H given you? Small group activity
- NOON 4-H Foundation Recognition Luncheon
- 1:00 Youth Delegates and State Youth Leader Council
Adult Leader District Caucus and State Meeting
- 2:30 Break
- 2:45 Creating a Welcoming Environment for new 4-H Members and Families – The most likely time for a youth to drop out of 4-H is during the first year of membership. Joining a new group can often be difficult. Learn helpful strategies for making 4-H a friendly and welcoming place!
Presenter – Karen Sipple, Clark County 4-H Youth Development Agent and Youth Leaders
- 3:45 Adjourn
Adult Leader Council Executive Board meets
Youth Leader Council resumes