The purposes of the University of Wisconsin-Extension Tenured Faculty Review and Department Policy are to:

- Recognize and foster the scholarly work of its faculty
- Assure that faculty members commit their talents to best serve the interests of the students, colleagues and clients, the institution, the academic discipline and their own intellectual growth
- Assist tenured faculty in their continuing professional development
- Provide guidance and support for addressing any deficiencies identified in the current review.

Tenured faculty performance shall be reviewed once every five years.

Committee Membership
With the approval of edits to Appendix K at the April 2013 DYD meeting, the committee membership includes 3 tenured members, elected at large, and 1 professor, also elected at large. The DYD Chair no longer serves on the committee. Current membership includes:

- Debbie Moellendorf, professor – term ends in 2014
- Ian Meeker, associate professor - term ends in 2015
- Colleen Pulvermacher, associate professor – term ends in 2016
- René Mehlberg, associate professor – term ends in 2016

Committee Work
The committee met in October. Mehlberg was elected chair. Reviews are scheduled for February 4 & February 5. The following faculty will be reviewed:

- Bark Barker
- John deMontmollin
- Demetrius Brown
- Frank Ginther
- Deb Ivey
- Sally Schoenike
- Joan Wimme

The committee is working to utilize Google Drive to sharing documents and as a way for candidates to upload their materials. We plan on holding one review via Google Hangout.

Respectfully submitted René Mehlberg, Chair.
