Shotgun Hunt and Cover Rules 2007

1. Hunt and Cover is a team event with 2 members (“hunter” & “cover”) standing side by side at one of the 5 stations.
2. The (first person) “hunter” calls for the target and shoots (hit =1 point), if the “hunter” misses, the (second person) “cover” can try to break the target (hit = 1 point, loss = 0).
3. If the “hunter” breaks the target and the “cover” shoots, it will be recorded as a loss for the “hunter” (0 points).
4. For the second target the roles are reversed. The cover is now the “hunter” and the hunter is now the “cover”.
5. After each person has been the hunter 5 times, all teams shall rotate to the next station as per regular trap rules.
6. The highest team score will be the winner.
7. Ties will be determined by whoever has the longest string of broken targets starting from the last target back and starting with the first hunter.

Washington County, WI 4-H Shooting Sports
2007 TRAP Tournament Rules

1. To be eligible to participate in this tournament you must be registered as a WI 4-H Shooting Sports Shotgun project member as recognized in your county and must have completed the DNR Hunter Safety Education Program. A copy of your hunter safety certificate must accompany your registration.
2. EAR PROTECTION: Adequate ear protection must be worn by all competitors, coaches, range officials, and spectators on the range during live firing. Ear plugs or muffs are acceptable.
3. EYE PROTECTION: All shooters and other persons on or in the immediate vicinity of the firing line, including coaches, range officials and any spectators must wear adequate eye protection (glasses or goggles). The equipment must protect both eyes.
4. Shooters must provide their own shells. No shells longer than 2-3/4" except .410 gauge. Trap loads only, magnum or baby magnum loads are not permitted. Shot sizes 7-1/2 to 9 only. RELOADS ARE NOT PERMITTED.
5. Shooters will fire from the 16 yard line.
6. A participant may enter two individual classes and one "Hunt and Cover" event.
7. Equipment classes are: 28 gauge and .410, 20 gauge, 16 gauge, and 12 gauge. If entering more than one individual class, circle the class to be used for team competition or the first class listed will be used. No "Hunt and Cover" scores may be used for team competition. The competition divisions are Intermediate (12-14 yrs. old), Senior (15 -1 yr. f/hs), and Mixed (12- 1 yr f/hs). "Hunt and Cover" divisions are Intermediate, Senior or Mixed. If your county only has one participant in the Intermediate and one in the Senior division, you can enter "Hunt and Cover" and you will be in the Mixed "Hunt and Cover" division.
8. Equipment will be inspected before shooting.
8. Shotgun Hunt and Cover Rules 2007.
  - a. Hunt and Cover is a team event with 2 members ("hunter" & "cover") standing side by side at one of the 5 stations.
  - b. The (first person) "hunter" calls for the target and shoots (hit =1 point), if the "hunter" misses, the (second person) "cover" can try to break the target (hit = 1 point, loss = 0).
  - c. If the "hunter" breaks the target and the "cover" shoots, it will be recorded as a loss for the "hunter" (0 points).
  - d. For the second target the roles are reversed. The cover is now the "hunter" and the hunter is now the "cover".
  - e. After each person has been the hunter 5 times, all teams shall rotate to the next station as per regular trap rules.
  - f. The highest team score will be the winner.
  - g. Ties will be determined by whoever has the longest string of broken targets starting from the last target back and starting with the first hunter.
9. Only broken targets out of the house and one miss fire per round will be allowed for recall.
10. No Coaching or spotting allowed on the range during competition.
11. In the event of ties, awards shall be decided on the basis of the longest run in the total event.
12. beginning with the first target hit. If a tie remains a ten clay shoot-off will be shot; 2 clays per station. Should this not resolve the tie, the event will be decided by a station by station (1 shot) "sudden death."
13. Physically handicapped shooters – Physically handicapped shooters may petition to have either temporary or permanent adjustments in the rules to permit them to compete. Medical evidence is required and each situation is considered individually. Our objective is to permit anyone to participate whenever possible. Special accommodations must be requested on your registration form.
14. Competitors must maintain proper Sportsmanship at all times. Any rule infraction(s) may disqualify a participant at any time during the tournament as determined by the Range Officer and/or Tournament Director
15. Amateur Trapshooting Association rules govern, except for the above rules and when the Match Director alters rules to allow for the smooth operation of the shoot.
