

UW-Extension Dairy Road Show “Gaining the Competitive Edge”

January, 2006 Evaluation

Dairy Manager/ Employee	Agribusiness
<input type="checkbox"/> <100 cows	<input type="checkbox"/> Nutritionist
<input type="checkbox"/> 100-200 cows	<input type="checkbox"/> Milk Plant
<input type="checkbox"/> 200-300 cows	<input type="checkbox"/> Dairy Equip
<input type="checkbox"/> 300-400 cows	<input type="checkbox"/> A. I.
<input type="checkbox"/> 400-500 cows	<input type="checkbox"/> Lender
<input type="checkbox"/> > 500 cows	<input type="checkbox"/> Educator

Use the “before” column to mark (x) your prior level of knowledge and understanding for each topic before attending this program (1=low, 7=high). Then, use the “after” column and mark(x) your knowledge and understanding of each topic as a result of participating in this program (1=low, 7=high). Then, check (✓) those topics in the far left column you expect to add or change in your business as a result of what you learned today.

✓	Topic	“Before”							“After”
		low					high		low					high
		1	2	3	4	5	6	7	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
	Synchronized Breeding of Dairy Cows
	Resynchronized Breeding of Cows that Fail to Breed
	CIDR’s vs. GnRH After Timed Breeding
	Using Rumensin in Dry Cow Diets
	Using Rumensin in Milk Cow Diets
	New Starch Test for Feedstuffs
	Causes of Butterfat Depression
	Protein Requirements for Dairy Cows
	Using Milk Urea Nitrogen (MUN) Test
	Biosecurity: Preventing Mycoplasma
	Biosecurity: Preventing Johnes
	Biosecurity: Preventing Salmonella
	Biosecurity: Handling Purchased Cattle
	Crossbreeding Research Update
	Transition Cow Index

Finally, please list topics of interest for future programs and/or suggestions on how we could improve this program (use backside if necessary):

Thanks for Your Participation & Support!