

Center for Community &
Economic Development

Discussion questions

- Do you believe growth is a necessary condition for development?
- How have changes in your community influenced the pursuit of the common good?
- How effective are community-based organizations in your region in promoting public participation?