

Subprime and High Interest Mortgages in 2006

Shown as a Percent of All Conventional Home Purchase and Refinancing Loans Originating by Census Tract*

Subprime and High Interest Mortgages (as a share of all home purchase and refinance loans by Census Tract)

- 21.0% or less
- 21.1% to 28.0% (National Average)
- 28.1% to 35.0%
- 35.1% to 42.0%
- 42.1% or More
- County Boundaries
- State Borders

Data Sources:
2006 Home Mortgage Disclosure Act Data and UW-Extension Center for Community and Economic Development

*Based on first lien mortgages used for home purchasing or refinancing. Figures only include loans made by conventional lenders for one-to-four family, owner-occupied dwellings (excluding manufactured homes). Figures do not include loans insured by government programs such as FHA or VA. Lenders without an office in a metropolitan area are not required to report HMDA data.

