

Working from home

In 2006, 3.6 percent of the workers residing in Dane County worked at home. While Dane County's overall share of employees working at home is below the national average, industry sectors vary in their shares of individuals working at home.

Percentage of employees working at home by sector

Dane County, 2006

SOURCE:
U.S. Census Bureau

Estimates are based on a 90 percent confidence interval and are subject to sampling and non-sampling errors.

Part 4 of this month's series on commuting Next month's topic: Retail's holiday season

QUESTIONS: Contact Matt Kures, Center for Community & Economic Development, UW-Extension at: matthew.kures@uwex.edu.

Economic Snapshot is a weekly feature provided by the 