

Foreclosure filings still well below the national average

In the first half of 2007, few Wisconsin counties even approached the national average of one foreclosure filing per 134 households. Although there has been rapid growth in the number of foreclosure filings (default notices, auction sale notices and bank repossessions), there were 460 households per foreclosure in Dane County. A high number of households per foreclosure means there were fewer foreclosures in that area.

Number of households per foreclosure filing

January to June 2007

SOURCE: www.realtytrac.com

Part 4 of this month's series on subprime lenders
Next week: Home purchase loans to low-income households

QUESTIONS: Contact Professor Andy Lewis, Center for Community and Economic Development, University of Wisconsin Extension at: andy.lewis@uwex.edu

Economic Snapshot is a weekly feature provided by the

