

Chad Cook
Basin Educator
For Natural Resources,
Upper Fox and
Wolf River
Basins
Basin Education
Program

Chad Cook

Basin Educator for Natural Resources, Upper Fox and Wolf River Basins

Basin Education Program

625 East County Road Y

Suite 600

Oshkosh, WI 54901

Phone: 920-232-1990

Email: chad.cook@ces.uwex.edu

For more information, visit this website: <http://basineducation.uwex.edu/>

Programming Areas

- Natural resource education in the Upper Fox and Wolf River Basins
- Water quality and quantity (both surface and ground)
- Invasive species
- Citizen-based volunteer monitoring
- Landowner education

Audience and Partners

- Local DNR staff (primarily Forestry and Water)
- County-based UWEX Educators
- County Land & Water Conservation Departments
- Conservation organizations
- Woodland, shoreland, and rural landowners

Team Membership

- Natural Resources – Water – General
- Natural Resources – Aquatic Invasives
- Natural Resources – Volunteer Monitoring
- Natural Resources – Economics

Educational Resources

Publications

- Freshwater Mussels of the Lower Wolf River. 2007. Developed with staff from DNR and UW-Extension Environmental Resources Center.

- Rain Gardens: A fun & attractive way to improve water quality! 2007. Developed with staff from Calumet County Land & Water Conservation Dept. and Calumet County UW-Extension.
- The Economic Impact of Angling on the Lake Winnebago System. 2006. Developed with Winnebago County UW-Extension CNRED Educator.
- What Could Your Woods Mean for You? 2005. Developed with Wisconsin Family Forests and UW-Extension Central WI Basin Educator.

Workshops, Wislines and Other Programs

- Winter (Jan.) annually, Woodland Owner's Conference.
- Summer 2007. Woodland Invaders! Workshop held in the Town of Clayon (Winnebago Co) Park.
- Spring 2006, DNR Aquatic Invasive Species Grant Program Workshop.
- Summer/Fall 2005, Navigating Wisconsin's New Water Law: Meeting New Chapter 30 State Standards.
- Fall 2004 and Spring 2005, Introduction to Controlled Burns.
- Winter 2004, DNR Grants Workshop.

Online Tools

- Not applicable

Research and Outreach

- Not applicable