Programming Areas

Recent examples of educational programs aimed at preparing communities for economic growth and building community capacity:

- First Impressions
<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/cced/communities/firstimpressions/index.cfm>
A structured program that reveals the first impression a community conveys to visitors (tourists, potential investors, and new residents).
Revised 2007
- Community Economic Preparedness Index
<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/cced/economies/ccedpi.cfm> - An index that helps analyze a community's strengths and weaknesses before making investments in developing a plan to improve economic development opportunities.
- Nonprofit Management Educational Materials
<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/cced/nonprofits/management/index.cfm> - The Learner Resource Center provides you with a number of resources on the web that could provide you with assistance in a variety of nonprofit management and leadership issues. In the "nonprofit web sites" section, you will find a number of useful annotated resources organized by topic...everything from "How to start a nonprofit organization" to "Volunteer management."
- Steps to Creating an Economic Development Corporation
<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/cced/economies/developmentorganizations/index.cfm> - Resources aimed at assisting communities and regions with the task of creating an organization that focuses on the creation of jobs and income.
- Community Indicators
<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/cced/economies/communityindicators/index.cfm>
Online datasets that provide practical, thought provoking information that stimulates discussion at the community level. The templates are designed to provide easy access to a variety of data about Wisconsin communities.

Audience and Partners

- I develop educational programs and tools that assist communities in developing strategies for improving jobs, income and quality of life. My primary audiences include county based extension educators as well as community and economic development practitioners in Wisconsin.
