

Aaron
Wunderlin
Research Specialist
UW-Discovery Farms

Aaron Wunderlin

Research Specialist

UW-Discovery Farms

4319 Expo Dr.

PO Box 1150

Manitowoc, Wisconsin 54221

Phone: 920-839-5431

Email: Aaron.Wunderlin@ces.uwex.edu

For more information, visit this website: www.uwdiscoveryfarms.org

---

Programming Areas

- Water Quality Monitoring: Monitoring surface runoff, tile discharge, and groundwater in agricultural settings. Upon analysis, results are shared with the audiences listed below.
- Nutrient Management education

---

Audience and Partners

- Agricultural producers
- Government agencies
- Environmental organizations
- General Public

---

Team Membership

X UW-Discovery Farms Program

---

Educational Resources

Publications

- 2011, "Understanding Nutrient and Sediment Losses at Koepke Farms, Inc" fact sheets, Nancy Drummy, Aaron Wunderlin, Eric Cooley, and Dennis Frame.
- 2010, "Understanding Nutrient and Sediment Losses at Saxon Homestead Farm" fact sheets, Aaron Wunderlin, Eric Cooley, and Dennis Frame.
- 2010, "Understanding Nutrient and Sediment Losses at Pagel's Ponderosa Dairy" fact sheets, Aaron Wunderlin, Eric Cooley, and

Dennis Frame.

Workshops, Wislines and Other Programs

- 2011, MALWEG training – Manitowoc County, Tony Smith, Mike Wendt, Eric Cooley, and Aaron Wunderlin.

Online Tools

- Not Applicable

Research and Outreach

- 2010-present, Soil Moisture's Influence on Surface Runoff during Non-Frozen Ground Periods, Aaron Wunderlin, Tim Radatz, Todd Stuntebeck, and Eric Cooley.
- 2009-present, Regular contributions to UW-Discovery Farms's blog and newsletter, Aaron Wunderlin.