

Douglas County 4-H Leaders Association Meeting
July 13, 2009
Head of the Lakes Fair, Youth Building

Attendees: Sheila Filmore, Lorrie Gunnerson, Pat Luostari, Scott Luostari, Nancy Collins, Nola Stenroos

President, Scott Luostari, opened the meeting at 6:35.

There were no Secretary's or Treasurer's Reports – no information was available.

Old Business:

Cloverbuds camp only had four kids attend. This year it was a Saturday.

Junior Camp had 60 kids in attendance.

Sheila Filmore reported on the Gateway Academy. She attended the last day for the “show and tell” and the kids seemed excited about what they had learned.

The Expansion and Review Committee met. There were 8-10 people and lots of ideas were generated. Volunteer recruitment was an issue that came up and there will be something done during the Fair to explore this further. There was also discussion about setting up a community club within the city and one within the county.

There was also a reminder given to be thinking about potential Board Members for 2009-2011 for the October meeting.

Upcoming events were reviewed.

Fair Business:

Entry tags will be mailed. Dairy Bar schedule was reviewed and discussed. The Dairy Bar menu was discussed and a few changes made to prices. Also a few changes of items were made on the menu. Fair passes for Wentworth Greenhouse were addressed and arrangements made to get them the passes.

A Member Expectation Agreement was provided to everyone at the meeting for information purposes. If anyone is interested in using for their clubs, there are lesson plans available.

Sheila Filmore made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Lorrie Gunnerson seconded the motion. Meeting adjourned at 7:35.
