What is 4-H Camping?

4-H Camp is a co-educational program for youth grades 3-6 as of January 1. Iowa County campers attend with Green and Lafayette County 4-H members. The camp session is three days long. Campers stay in cabins with 12-14 other youth and one or two high school age counselors. Wholesome meals are served family style. Food and milk are plentiful.

Campers experience a wide variety of activities. Some encourage individual competition while others provide teamwork. There are quiet times and noisy times. There are many opportunities for new friendships as well as developing new skills and interests.

This program provides a great opportunity to meet and make new friends, develop leadership and cooperation skills, and learn about our natural world in a safe environment with trained individuals.

Camp Upham Woods is a recreational and natural resource complex. It is part of Cooperative Extension Programs of the University of Wisconsin System. The Center deals with principles in youth development and leadership. Located on the Wisconsin River just north of Wisconsin Dells, Upham Woods consists of 318 acres of woodlands. The facility is made up of thirteen buildings that supply lodging, meals and activity resources. Upham Woods functions all year round with the aid of both a permanent staff and an intern staff.

Transportation

Transportation will be provided to and from Upham Woods 4-H Camp.

Health Forms

A health form and youth expectation agreement will be mailed out to interested participants. They must be completed and returned to the Extension Office two weeks prior to camp.

Quota

This is a three-county camp and Iowa County can send 45 campers this year. Unfilled quotas will be offered to the other counties to use on April 10. Please do not delay in sending in your application.

Parent Permission

By signing the permission slip, parents designate all matters of discipline and emergency decisions to the camp authorities and thereby release the camp authorities or camp association from any liability for accidents. Parents further agree that the stated member shall be bound by camp rules and regulations.
