Wisconsin 4-H & Youth Conference Participants

Carrie Kline, Alyssa Zellner, Lydia Jerabek, Elizabeth Jerabek, Becky Seidl, and Jessica Gozdziwski took advantage of the opportunity to meet youth from around the state at the Wisconsin 4-H & Youth Leadership Conference. At Youth Conference youth in 8th-10th grade are provided with the opportunity to learn how to contribute to their communities, learn about 4-H and Extension programs, meet youth from diverse backgrounds, and strengthen communication, leadership, and life skills. Most of all, youth that have gone on the trip say that it is fun!

You can from over 50 different classes to participate in ranging from meeting with state legislature, learning about the medical field, learn self-defense, swing dance, improve public speaking skills, learn basic rock climbing, and more. Plus, there are a variety of other fun event and activities that take place. If you are interested in learning more about Youth Conference or would like to attend next year, contact Jill at (920) 388-7185 or ask one of last year's delegates (their names are listed above) to tell you about her experience.

Club News

Stars of Carlton

The June meeting started at 7:10 with the Secretary report given by Travis and Reese, followed by the Treasurer report.

We decided to have a party sometime in August. We are not going to do calf dressing. We will be giving out sundaes at L&L on Sun.,

4-H Enrollment Forms

If you did not already know this, the Wisconsin 4-H is switching over to a new enrollment system and is working on new enrollment forms and project listings. Therefore, we are going to move the re-enrollment form deadline to Nov. 3, 2008. This is only

June 22.

Fair clean up is on July 7 at 7 pm. Everyone who is taking cattle to the fair is to have a BVD test done.

State fair entries are due on June 27 at the UW-Extension office. Breakfast on the farm is on June 15. Meeting was adjourned at 7:47 pm.

for this year because of the late issuing of enrollment forms. New enrollments will still be due by Feb. 1, 2009. We ask for your patience as we work through this new system.

Nominate Someone for an Award

Do you know an outstanding leader, new teen leader, teen leader, or a business/person that is a friend of 4-H? Is there a youth leader that goes above and beyond to help and teach others? Have you noticed a volunteer that just never seems to quit? If so, nominate them for an award. The awards committee will make the final selections from the nominations that were receive and they will be presented their aware at the fall Leader's Banquet. Applications can be picked up at the UW-Extension Office or from a 4-H club leader. They are also available online at: <http://www.uwex.edu/ces/cty/kewaunee/4h/index.html>

4-H Open House Planned

The eleventh Annual Kewaunee County 4-H Open House is scheduled for Sept. 22, 2008, at the Kewaunee County Fairgrounds Youth Exhibit Building. The event will begin at 6:30 pm and last until 8 pm. Clubs and project areas are encouraged to plan a hands-on activity for children in grades K-6 that will promote their club or project.

It is the hope of the committee that every club and many of the projects will be represented. Families who visit the Open House are hoping to talk to leaders and members of the clubs and projects that they are considering joining.

Last year we had a fantastic showing from the clubs and projects. Keep up the good work this year. The Open House is a key promotional event for Kewaunee County 4-H.

4-H State Hunt and Dressage Show

Written By: Marissa Herm

The Wisconsin State 4-H Horse Association hosted its 18th Annual Hunter & Dressage Show and Mini Events at the Sheboygan County Fairgrounds on June 27-29, 2008. The Kewaunee County Horse Project was represented by Amy Halverson, Cassie Detampel, Brittini DeKeyser, and Marissa Herm.

On Friday, June 27, Amy Halverson and her horse, Char, participated in the Mini Event that included classes in Cross Country, Stadium Jumping and Eventing Dressage. This riding duo received a Top Ten placing for their trio of events.

Saturday, June 28, brought with it the Dressage Show. Cassie Detampel (riding We Are Rich) and Marissa Herm (riding Specially Spence) tested their skills by riding in the Pas de Duex, Grade 6-13. Their efforts were rewarded with a Top Ten ribbon. Amy Halverson (riding Char) executed a Musical Ker, Grade 6-13 with a resulting Top Ten award.

The show continued with the riders competing in various dressage classes on Saturday, June 28, and hunter classes on Sunday, June 29. The placings are as follows:

Marissa Herm: Equitation on the Flat – Grand Champion
Working Hunter on the Flat – Grand

Champion

Training Level Test 1 – Top Ten
Amy Halverson:

Working Hunter Over Fences – Reserve Champion
Working Green Over Fences – Top Ten

Mini Medal – Top Ten
Equitation on the Flat – Top Ten

Cassie Detampel: Training Level Test 3 – Reserve Champion

Training Level Test 2 – Top Ten
Equitation on the Flat – Top Ten

Working Hunter on the Flat – Top Ten
Brittini DeKeyser: Training

Level Test 1 – Top Ten
Training Level Test 2 – Top Ten

The competition wasn't the only excitement provided for riders and spectators alike. The weather was somewhat tumultuous and brought with it a variety of elements to endure. Friday's weather was hot and steamy, with Saturday bringing dark clouds, rain and a late afternoon thunderstorm. Sunday's weather brought cool temperatures and spontaneous rain showers. Despite the weather and a horse's natural instinct to realize "something was in the air," the riders met these challenges with confidence and a quiet resolve.

Congratulations to our riders for a job well done! You are to be commended for your representation of the Kewaunee County 4-H Horse Project.
