Marathon County 4-H Member Code of Conduct

As representatives of Marathon County 4-H, members are expected to adhere to the following "Code of Conduct".

Members will:

- *Follow the rules and regulations of the Wisconsin and Marathon County 4-H Program.
- *Treat other 4-H members and leaders with respect.
- *Behave in accordance with applicable federal, state, and municipal law. This includes:
 - Members will not, under any circumstances, consume or possess any alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or tobacco products. NO EXCEPTIONS!
 - Members will refrain from sexual misconduct.
- *Refrain from use of objectionable language, (includes swearing and slanderous comments).
- *Respect public and personal property.

Any member violating the above rules, (as determined by the Marathon County 4-H Leader's Federation, and/or Marathon County 4-H Youth Development Agent or 4-H Program Coordinator), will be subject to any or all of the following consequences:

1. Notification of parents or guardians.
2. Notification of club leaders.
3. Notification of law enforcement, if there is reason to believe it is necessary.
4. Individual may be required to appear before the 4-H Leader's Federation Board to explain his/her actions.
5. Revocation of privilege to participate in 4-H sponsored programming.

We have carefully read and discussed the rules and consequences of the Marathon County 4-H Member Code of Conduct, and agree to accept them.
