What is Youth Center Without Walls

How much does it cost to participate in these events?

What is the programs purpose: To create a safe, fun environment to get teens off the couch, out of the house, and together with friends.

The Youth Center Without Walls was created by a youth planning team made up of teens from throughout Oconto County who wanted to help organize activities for middle school aged youth.

Fishing with Friends

Youth Center Without Walls is designed to provide events at little or no cost to the participants. This is accomplished several different ways:

- The planning team will hold fundraisers.

- We are looking for donations from business leaders, civic organizations, as well as private citizens interested in helping the youth here in Oconto County.

If you would like to contribute to the Youth Center Without Walls, with a monetary contribution, donations of services, or if you would like to volunteer to chaperone an event, or join the planning team please contact Neil Klemme at the UW-Extension Office.

Their objectives are to:

Rafting With Friends

- Give youth something to do off the street, off the couch, out of the house, with friends.
- Provide safe supervised activities.
- Provide a fun safe environment where youth can socialize with their peers.
- Pull the county together across school district lines.
- Ultimately, create a safer community.

Ideas for events for the summer of 2007 :

- Rafting/Swimming/Fishing
- Hiking/Swimming-Door Co.
- Camping Trip
- Horseback Riding
- Canoeing
- Climbing Wall

This program is a great way to make new friends from around the county and give back to the community we are all a part of.
