What is a Parenting Resource Center?

A Parenting Resource Center is a place for you to learn to be the best possible parent you can be. We provide you with the education, resources and support you need to build a healthy family. Everyone is Welcome!

As parents who participate in Center activities, you will:

- Build strong relationships with your child(ren)
- Have opportunities to share ideas with other parents
- Access Parenting Resource Center information at your own pace
- Learn what to expect as your child grows
- Learn effective child-rearing
- Improve family relationships
- Develop stress management skills

Educational Opportunities

Parent education classes on topics including effective behavior management, communication skills, stress management, child growth/development, nutrition/health, and building self-esteem. Child-care is provided free of charge during class sessions.

Resource Library— The Parenting Resource Centers have a wide variety of parenting information available including books, pamphlets, videos and handouts on a variety of topics.

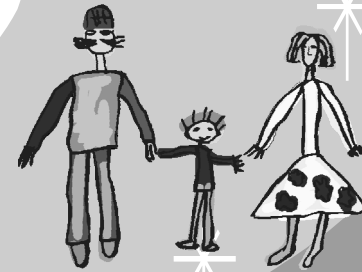

Drop-In Playgroups— An opportunity for parents and children to enjoy each other's company and socialize with other families. There are social and learning activities provided by the staff.

Monthly Make and Take— Work together with your child on an item to take home.

One-to-One Consultations— Staff are available to provide parenting information to families. Call to set up an appointment to discuss your individual questions.
