

Have an Education Adventure at College Days 2008

Expand your mind as UW-Extension Family Living Programs hosts the 45th College Days conference June 3 to June 5 on the beautiful campus of the University of Wisconsin—Madison. Experience college life, stay in university dorms and attend seminars taught by UW-Madison faculty and local experts.

There are seminars to interest everyone at College Days 2008. Hear experts on current topics like amazing mapping tools, consumer product safety, and Latino culture. Meet Captain Cook, King Arthur, Hans Christian Anderson, and the women in Frank Lloyd Wright's life. Try your hand at flower petal art. Learn to plant a native garden. Enter the topsy-turvy world of Gilbert and Sullivan. Choose from many more timely and interesting seminars.

You'll find history is fun with our opening speaker, professor emeritus Stanley Schultz. Hear closing speaker, Harriet Brown, editor of Wisconsin Trails magazine, share her favorite things about Wisconsin.

Tuesday night we'll spice things up as you learn salsa dancing and the rumba. On Wednesday, enjoy the eclectic sounds of The Folks in the Middle. Tour the renovated Camp Randall Stadium, "Mansion Hill", Allen Centennial Gardens, the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art, or the Native American Mounds on campus.

There's something for everyone at College Days 2008. For a brochure, call toll free 888-391-4255 or visit our website at www.uwex.edu/ces/flp/conference.
