

Appendix F: Stevens Point Cultural Events

Cultural events/traditions in the City include, but are by no means limited to:

“World’s Largest Trivia Contest” held each spring as a fundraiser for UWSP student radio station;

5 UWSP Theater/Dance Productions annually;

American Indians Reaching for Opportunity (AIRO) Pow Wow;

Annual Art in the Park;

Annual Hmong Conference;

Barbershoppers & Sweet Adeline's performances;

Blocher Planetarium;

Celebración Hispana;

Central Wisconsin Area Community Theater;

Central Wisconsin Children's Museum;

Central Wisconsin Symphony Orchestra;

City Band, performing weekly in the Band Shell along the Riverfront (summer months);

City-funded poet laureate;

Conservatory for the Creative Arts;

Farmer’s Market, Downtown Public Square, Stevens Point. Held daily, spring to fall.

Festival of Arts;

Festival of India;

Gospel Choir Festival;

Hmong New Year festivities open to the community;

Home to the only Polish Newspaper (written in the Polish language) in the United States.

Live folk music venue in downtown Stevens Point with live music Wednesday through Saturday night;

Mid-Autumn Festival (annual Chinese festival with traditional Chinese games);

Monteverdi Master Chorale;

More than 100 public UWSP music events annually – open to the public;

National Wellness Conference;

Portage County Cultural Festival, a local event where ethnic foods and performances are presented to the community (and attendance reaches 10,000);

Riverfront Arts Center, rotating exhibits;

Riverfront Rendezvous on July 4th weekend;

Soul Food Dinner;

Special Olympics

Suzuki Institute;

The Association of Downtown Business Owners is also considering a Polish Cultural Festival with traditional food and entertainment.

The downtown will have 8 programmed lunchtime music events in the new downtown plaza near the eastern entrance to the Center Pointe Mall.

UWSP International Dinner;

UWSP Natural History Museum;

UWSP Performing Arts series;