

Rental and Home Ownership Challenges in the Current Economy

The first in a series of housing conferences in Racine County

Thursday, May 14, 2009

8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m., Gateway Technical College
(Racine Building, map at <http://www.gtc.edu/>)

Who should attend?

- Professionals, policymakers, volunteers and staff of community-based organizations working with individuals, families, and communities in Racine County

Why should you attend?

- ◆ Increase your knowledge of home ownership and renting
- ◆ Increase understanding of rights and protections related to housing
- ◆ Obtain practical tools and resources to share with individuals and families, such as Rent Smart, and ways to incorporate materials into current work
- ◆ Improve ability to connect people to prevention and intervention resources by understanding housing- and financial-related resources
- ◆ Receive CLEs (applied for) or UW-Extension CEUs

Provided by the Racine Housing Coalition and Racine

County Homeless Assistance Coalition in partnership with Racine County UW-Extension, Legal Action of WI, City of Racine, NAMI Racine, Racine/Kenosha Community Action, and the conference planning team. Supported by United Way of Racine County
