GOING SOLO:
How to Start and
Run a Family
Business

The key to success in running a small business is knowledge.

GOING SOLO: Building a Family Business

Did you ever think about operating a small business and getting results?

Did you know that 89% of incomes over $50,000 a year are earned by owners of small businesses?

Attend U.W. Extension's Going Solo: Building a Family Business workshop to learn about how to start a business.

Workshop benefits include:

- FREE dinner.
- a certificate of completion.
- Guest speakers will give you insight in the business world.
- Receive a wealth of resources from proven professionals to plan and conceive your small business idea.
- Prizes will be awarded to participants.

The course is being taught by Jerry Braatz and Steve Chmielewski of Waukesha County UW-Extension.

To register for the workshop, please call Jerry @ 262-548-7786 or Steve @262-548-7781.

There are a limited number of spots, so call today a reserve your spot for the next session!

Families are encouraged to attend and work together.
