

Dairy/Beef FEED MANAGEMENT TRAINING (592)

What Nutritionists, Veterinarians and CCAs need to know

February 28, 2006

Headquarters Building, Arlington Ag Research Station
N695 Hopkins Road, Arlington WI

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 The Feed Management-Land Management Connection (effect of fertilizer and manure on feed quality and the impact of feed on manure nutrients)
Dennis Frame, Discovery Farms
- 9:30 The 592 standard and Feed Management Plans: What it means to your bottom line
Kevan Klingberg, Discovery Farms
- 9:50 DAIRY BREAKOUT: Current Recommendations for dietary protein in lactating cow diets
Bob Kaiser, UW Dairy Science
- BEEF BREAKOUT: Current Recommendations for beef animals
Jeff Lehmkuhler, UW Dairy Science
- 10:45 Review of Feed Management Plans: How we've written them for 15 Wisconsin dairy farms.
Tim Popple, UW Discovery Farms
- 11:20 Here is what we have done to lower dietary phosphorus
Local dairy producer/beef producer, TBDE
- 11:45 Visible Impact: How dietary P reductions have impacted manure nutrients and forage and grain production
Local crop consultant, TBD
- 12:10: Lunch (provided)
- 12:45 How dairy rations impact air quality/odor emissions
Mark Powell, USDA Dairy Forage Research Center
- 1:15 Roundtable discussion on dairy nutrition/feeding issues
Morning/afternoon presenters
- 2:15 Adjourn

COST: $35 in advance/$40 at the door. Pre-register online at <http://conservationtraining.uwex.edu> (click on Feed Management). Make checks payable to "UW Extension"

This document can be provided in an alternative format by calling Kevin Erb at 920.391.4652 (voice) or 711 (Wisconsin Relay). If you need an accommodation for a disability to fully participate in this program, please contact Kevin Erb at the numbers above. Please allow sufficient time to arrange the accommodation.