

Dairy/Beef FEED MANAGEMENT TRAINING (592)

What Nutritionists, Veterinarians and CCAs need to know

March 9, 2006

Chippewa Falls Tech College, Chippewa Falls, WI

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 The Feed Management-Land Management Connection (effect of fertilizer and manure on feed quality and the impact of feed on manure nutrients)
Dennis Frame, Discovery Farms
- 9:30 The 592 standard and Feed Management Plans: What it means to your bottom line
Kevan Klingberg, Discovery Farms
- 9:50 Current Recommendations for dietary protein in lactating cow diets
Pat Hoffmann, UW Dairy Science
- 10:40 How dairy rations impact air quality/odor emissions and an update on the OFFSET model
Larry Jacobson, Biosystems Engineering, University of Minnesota
- 11:20 Here is what we have done to lower dietary phosphorus
Local dairy producer/beef producer, TBD
- 11:45 Visible Impact: How dietary P reductions have impacted manure nutrients and forage and grain production
Local crop consultant, TBD
- 12:10: Lunch (provided)
- 12:45 Review of Feed Management Plans: How we've written them for 15 Wisconsin dairy farms.
Tim Popple, UW Discovery Farms
- 1:15 Roundtable discussion on dairy nutrition/feeding issues

Farmer and crop consultant, plus
Larry Jacobson, Biosystems Engineering, U of Minnesota Extension
Dennis Frame, Discovery Farms
- 2:15 Adjourn

COST: $35 in advance/$40 at the door. Pre-register online at <http://conservationtraining.uwex.edu> (click on Feed Management). Make checks payable to "UW Extension"

This document can be provided in an alternative format by calling Kevin Erb at 920.391.4652 (voice) or 711 (Wisconsin Relay). If you need an accommodation for a disability to fully participate in this program, please contact Kevin Erb at the numbers above. Please allow sufficient time to arrange the accommodation.