

Cooperative Extension: The Educational Tool Serving Wisconsin Counties

Looking for another reason to attend the State
WACEC Conference??
We have FOUR good reasons!

2009 WACEC State Conference

June 15-16, 2009 Radisson Hotel, LaCrosse

Registration Deadline: May 22, 2009

<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/wacecconference/>

Announcing the State WACEC Concurrent Sessions! “Sustaining Our Communities and Families in Turbulent Times”

1. “Supporting Positive Environments for Youth: Keeping Kids Out of Trouble”. Strategies that are making a difference in protecting against risk behaviors while improving youth and community outcomes
2. “It’s Not the Family it Used to Be”. Go behind the scenes of today’s family composition and complex issues and see examples of programming that responds to the real needs of today’s families to increase their resilience
3. “Aging in Our Communities”. Building and sustaining local networks and services to strengthen communities with aging populations.
4. “Helping Our Families and Communities in Hard Economic Times”. The wide array of tools that help individuals, families and communities to be resilient in the face of crisis

Whether its food, fuel or finances, families & communities are feeling the stresses of economic downturn and emerging social problems. These sessions feature examples of UW-Cooperative Extension’s educational prevention and intervention tools applied for effective and lasting solutions.

WISCONSIN ASSOCIATED COUNTY EXTENSION COMMITTEES, INC.