

25th Annual Conference on Distance Teaching & Learning

Course Design Demonstration Handout

Instructions:

Each presenter must prepare a one-page handout about their demonstration for attendees. Please bring at least 30 copies of this sheet to your demo; extras may be distributed on our sharing tables in the main hallway. In addition, please upload a copy to our Conference Drop Box by July 15 so we can include it in our Web Resource Library (instructions on your Presenter Support Page).

Below is a guide in preparing your handout. Additional handouts and/or other pertinent course information are also welcome. If you have any questions, please contact Kimary Peterson at 608-265-4159 or distel2@education.wisc.edu.

Suggested information for course handout:

- 1) Title of the course and name of organization offering it:
- 2) Primary course designer(s):
- 3) To whom the course was targeted (training, undergrad, K-12, volunteers, etc.):
- 4) Is the course taught to students at a distance or used to augment classroom sessions?
- 5) What course platform (i.e. D2L, Moodle, custom HTML, etc.) was used, if any?
- 6) A 50-word summary of the key features you will highlight in the demo:
- 7) Please list your contact information for further questions.
