

Table of Contents

Introduction to A Guide to Program Planning and Evaluation	3
What do we know about youth water education programs?	3
Curriculum and programming gaps	4
Successful program features	4
Successful programming strategies	5
Setting up a successful water education program	5
Key elements of a successful water education program	6
A sense of place, stewardship, and community action	6
Planning and evaluating for success	7
Planning	7
Evaluating	7
Using the checklists	8
Using the resources	8
Managing for success: the role of the “instigator”	9
<hr/>
Water Program Planning Checklist	11
Who should use this checklist?	11
How to use the checklist	11
1. Program planning overview/review	12
2. Assessing community water education needs	14
3. Identifying networks and partners	16
4. Reviewing organizational support	18
5. Determining goals and objectives	20
6. Designing your program	22
7. Choosing a program delivery strategy	27
8. Evaluating your program	30
<hr/>
Water Program Evaluation Checklist	32
Who should use this checklist?	33
How to use this checklist	33
1. Looking at your results — overview/summery	34
2. Organization mission	36
3. Why do this program?	37
4. Program support, partners and networks	39
5. Program goals, design and access	41
6. Program delivery	44
7. Evaluation	46
<hr/>
Resources	48